What is going on?

You may be wondering why we're not in our "usual" building. Well, that building's schedule did not really line up with ours. Also if you look around, you'll notice that there are A LOT more people around, so this new place is necessary. And yet, it's still the people of God. It's still awesome food. It's still God's awesome nature. And it's still God's powerful Word. So much of life changes, but these things do not. And so don't let the "new" things distract you from the things that don't change – mainly God's unshakable love for you, and how His love frees us.

–P.Sam
