Retreat Rules & Regulations

1. Attend every event at the retreat! We only have about 3.5 days combined together! That means every second and moment is important. Please respect the staff, each other, and God's time by being at least 5 minutes early to every activity.

*2. No Pairing off (boy & girl) is ever allowed. The only exception is two people that are married, engaged, or are blood related (cousins and siblings). Other than these exceptions, there are NO reasons any 1 boy and 1 girl should be alone together. This retreat is about WELCOMING, so please don't isolate yourselves!

3. Respect the Brethren Woods retreat staff and facility! None of us personally own the land or the buildings so please respect them and also respect the staff who come to feed us and clean up after us! Remember to say lots of "thank you"!

*4. No Pranks! There are no pranks allowed at this retreat what so ever! Please be reminded that there are people who are sensitive, especially our young brothers and sisters who may be on their first ever retreat! Nothing kills a retreat experience faster than a really bad prank.

5. Show kindness and respect towards one another! Again, this retreat is about welcoming, and getting to know one another – so please step out of your comfort zones and get to know those that you don't really know so well. Please be mindful to greet new comers, and avoid gossip at all costs!

6. Follow the leaders' instructions at all times! Your counselors and other staff members are taking time off from work or away from family, so respect them, love them, encourage them, and listen to them!

*7. Go to sleep when lights go out! We want you guys to be absolutely refreshed and ready to go every morning. That means you guys need your rest. Please make life easy for your counselors by going to sleep as soon as lights are out.

This retreat is about taking an honest look at all the different "gospels" that we listen to and live according to. We'll also look at how that affects the way we look at the Christian gospel as presented to us in the Bible. This retreat will be a time of thinking through these things.
